

Whistleblower Policy

This whistleblower form ensures that Pillar Nonprofit Network activities are conducted with integrity and that the confidence held by all our stakeholders is respected.

Pillar Nonprofit Network's whistleblower policy provides a channel of clear communication for employees, volunteers, clients, customers, vendors, Board Members, contractors and the general public to make known any inefficient, fraudulent, improper or illegal activities related to Pillar Nonprofit Network activities or provision of services. It ensures that all stakeholders have a clear and safe process to report any concerns and/or violations.

The information provided on this form will be forwarded directly to a member of Pillar's Board of Directors who, upon receipt and review, will launch a thorough investigation. If you'd rather fill out this form online, please visit:
